VFW NEWS - Celebrating 50 Years of Keeping VFW Members Informed and Inspired

Conference Motivates VFW Leaders to Increase Outreach and Impact

The Department's Mid-Winter Conference was a time of celebration, information-sharing and inspiration, and gave 300 VFW officers in attendance the direction and resources they need to continue the VFW's 119-year mission of service.

Representing VFW National Headquarters, Past Commander-in-Chief John Moon of Ohio stressed the importance for all posts to expand their outreach to better interact with veterans who represent the future of the VFW.

"I am proud of how well Pennsylvania is doing in recruiting," said Past Chief Moon. "But we all need to strive to do much more in membership and our programs. Please give this organization—your VFW—your utmost effort. Let's work harder for our comrades who cannot help themselves. The VFW's future is up to us, you and me. Everyone needs to step up how they support our great organization."

The conference agenda also featured a three-hour recruiting workshop led by Tara Fajardo Arteaga, a Conference attendees received an overview of all VFW programs, updates on veterans benefit issues and a briefing on women veterans initiatives. Other presenters included leaders of the PA Wounded Warriors (PAWW), the Gold Star Mothers and Pittsburgh Hires Veterans, represented by its director and VFW life member Jack Wagner.

Numerous donations were given during the sessions including $30,000 from the Department and District 21 to the American Diabetes Association, $6,000 from Oil City Post 464 to the PAWW and $6,000 from East Berlin Post 8996 for the Department's Jack Barger Nursing Scholarship Fund. Many posts combined to donate nearly 1,200 pairs of socks and other clothing items for homeless veterans.

Cross of Malta Remains New Logo Sets VFW Apart as Top Overseas Vet Group

The Veterans of Foreign Wars, America's largest and oldest major combat veterans organization, recently announced that it has deployed a new look.

The new VFW logo and visual language embraces the organization's storied 119 years of service to America's veterans, service members and their families, while underscoring its forward-thinking approach to service and its distinguished membership base. The VFW believes the new logo improves its market position and provides visual clarity to its mission of serving others.

"We're excited about the bold, new look," said B.J. Lawrence, national commander of the VFW. "There's a lot of complex meaning built into our new logo, yet it clearly communicates who we are and what we're about – service to nation while in the military and continuing service to our nation as veterans."

*From the State CommanderExcellence Increases Your Potential in Everything

Thomas M. Hanzes - thomashanzes@yahoo.com or (724) 815-9164

Greetings to all of you!

Excellence in anything increases your potential in everything!

As the PA VFW's season rounds third base, I emphatically want to say how proud I am of what all of you have accomplished, not only in membership, but in all VFW programs! I have witnessed much excellence!

Most certainly, this comes as no surprise, as the VFW Department of Pennsylvania has a legacy of great accomplishments, both on the VFW and the Auxiliary side! All posts and districts have much to be proud of as well. I ask everyone to continue working with increased enthusiasm on all the VFW programs during the final quarter of the 2018-19 year. Our train is not yet to the station. Let's all get on board!

I have been blessed beyond words to be your State Commander. I had the pleasure to meet so many of you. A year simply isn't enough time to visit every post and district. You have all been an inspiration to me with your tremendous examples of helping veterans, veterans' families and the communities in which you live. I am in awe of the magnitude of teamwork I have witnessed.

It would be impossible for us to make the progress that the VFW has accomplished without the dedication and support of all posts, regardless of size or location. The expertise provided by State Quartermaster/Adjutant John Getz, and everyone at State Headquarters, is invaluable. Thank you does not seem adequate to express my gratitude! I hope all posts will tap into the experience, resources and ideas that are available through our State Headquarters.

Let's continue to let everyone know what the Veterans of Foreign Wars stands for and what we do for others. It's necessary and vital to our organization that we "toot our own horn."

It is imperative that we continue to find new and inventive methods to attract more female members and younger members. If you have successful ideas, please share them at district meetings.

While we still have three months to go in the program year, I thank everyone for their hospitality, courtesies, friendship and support shown on this journey. My year has been so special in the hearts of Anne and I, and my Chief of Staff Jim Lewis and his wife Linda.

Mentorship means so much in creating effective VFW leaders. I am fortunate to have followed Past Department Commanders Thomas Brown and Dwight Fuhrman, whose guidance, encouragement and, above all else, friendship have been very helpful.

Having a strong Department President like Charlotte Swogger-Lopes has also helped to make my year productive and enjoyable.

As the last quarter of my year unfolds, I hope to continue "Serving, Mentoring and Inspiring" each of you in some form or fashion. I look forward to seeing you all at our State Convention in Erie. It is Pennsylvania's 100th Convention anniversary and we have several special things planned to commemorate this milestone!

Please finish out this year as best as you can. Never forget, "No one does more for veterans than the Veterans of Foreign Wars!"

VFW Delivers Veterans' Voice to Congress

WASHINGTON—More than 500 members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Auxiliary rallied in the nation's capital in early March to urge their respective members of Congress to continue improving the programs and services provided by the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Conference highlights included the VFW national commander's testimony before a joint hearing of the House and Senate Veterans Affairs Committees. Chief Lawrence presented the VFW's legislative priorities topped by calling for congressional oversight of the execution of the VA Mission Act of 2018 and the combined VA/DOD electronic record initiative.

"Unlike appeals modernization, the VA has elected to largely ignore the views of the nation's largest war veterans' organization when drafting rules to implement the VA Mission Act," said Lawrence. "VA executive leadership should be embarrassed that they have discontinued the VA's strong collaborative relationship with the VFW and chosen to make arbitrary decisions without consulting those who most intimately understand the VA's mission and veterans' needs."

Other priorities include getting the Blue

Water Navy Vietnam Veterans Act signed into law, improving burn pit research and accountability, eliminating the so-called "Widow's Tax," allowing military retirees to receive full retirement pay and disability pay without offset, and expanding and improving VA health care and research.

The VFW hosted its fifth VFW-Student Veterans of America Legislative Fellowship Program, which paired nine Fellows with mentors during visits to federal lawmakers.

VFW Returns Veterans Remains to Grateful Family

On Dec. 14, 75-year-old Barbara Dixon drove three hours from Middletown, DE, to Ephrata.

Her destination was VFW Post 3376, and her goal was to be reunited with her brother, Ronald, who had died and was cremated in 1996. Those remains were discovered on Nov. 19 by Lititz resident and GSM Roofing employee, Shane Hanna. While on a job site in New Castle, Del., Hanna and his co-workers took a peek at four industrial dumpsters that they would use later in the day.

"It was first thing in the morning," explained Hanna. "It was just something that caught my eye. I picked up the brass box, and it was heavier than you would expect. The wooden box was a few feet away from it."

That wooden cover had a U.S. Navy insignia and USS Saratoga imprinted on it.

"After putting it in my truck, I called my dad during the day," continued Hanna. "He's a veteran and lives in Akron. He said to bring it home."

Two days later, Hanna came to the VFW.

"He dropped off the remains with one of our managers," said VFW Quartermaster Amy MacKenzie. "I got in touch with the funeral home the week after Thanksgiving. It took several times to explain what I had. The clerk I spoke to said she would do her best to go through the archives and see if she could put me in touch with a family member."

And that led her to Barbara Dixon.

"When the lady called, she asked if I have a brother Ronald Lee Pruitt, who died in 1996," described Dixon. "When I said yes, she said 'then I have the right Barbara Dixon.'"

VA Initiates Appeals Modernization Act Program

All veterans who disagree with their VA rating decision now have three new options to resolve their benefit dispute:

- request a higher-level review from a more experienced person,
- submit a supplemental claim with additional evidence, or
- appeal directly to the Board of Veterans' Appeals.

Over the past two years, the VFW worked closely with VA and other veterans' organizations to craft this new framework, which was authorized by the VFW-supported Veterans Appeals Improvement and Modernization Act of 2017. The goal of the new system is to offer veterans greater flexibility and transparency to resolve benefit disputes in a timely manner, instead of waiting years for the VA to adjudicate their appeals.

VA's goal is to complete Supplemental Claims and Higher-Level Reviews in an average of 125 days, and decisions appealed to the Board for direct review in an average of 365 days. Under the legacy process, decisions averaged three to seven years.

The VA remains committed to reducing significantly the inventory of legacy appeals. VA's fiscal year 2019 budget included funding for 605 additional appeals employees, which the VA used to establish two new Decision Review Operations Centers at the St. Petersburg, Florida, and Seattle, Washington, regional offices. The former Appeals Resource Center in Washington, D.C., was converted to a third Decision Review Operations Center.

VFW Blue Water Navy Vet Wins Federal Appeals Court Ruling

The U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit reversed a decade-old ruling that potentially paves the way for the return of earned disability benefits for some 90,000 so-called Blue Water Navy veterans from the Vietnam War.

Blue Water Navy USS Thomaston, The case, Procopio v. Wilkie, was supported by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and a number of other veterans service organizations and advocates. It had Secretary of Veterans Affairs Robert L. Wilkie Jr. being sued by Navy veteran and VFW Life member Alfred Procopio Jr., who was denied service connection for prostate cancer and diabetes mellitus because he never was on dry land or served in Vietnam's inland waterways.

Procopio, a Life member of VFW Post 6587 in Spring Lake Park, Minn., was assigned aboard the aircraft carrier USS Intrepid, which was stationed inside Vietnam's 12-mile territorial waters. Both of his illnesses are listed among the VA's 14 presumptive diseases associated with AO exposure.

The Federal Appeals Court focused on the intent of the 1991 Agent Orange Act, which was to grant a presumption of service connection for certain diseases to veterans who "served in the Republic of Vietnam." At issue was whether service within territorial waters constituted service in the "Republic of Vietnam." By a 9-2 decision, the court ruled it did.

"Although very pleased with the ruling, the VFW isn't quite ready to celebrate," said VFW National Commander B.J. Lawrence. "That's because the VA can always appeal the ruling and Congress has yet to pass a Blue Water Navy bill. The VFW now calls on the VA to make Blue Water Navy veterans whole as soon as possible, and we stand ready to assist VA."

NEW FORMS FOR HEALTHCARE & RELEASE OF INFORMATION

The new VA Healthcare Enrollment form 10-10EZ (Apr 2017) and Request for and Authorization to Release Health Information (Sept 2018) forms have been updated. Post service officers make sure that veterans are using the correct forms.

PA VETERANS REGISTRY

We encourage veterans, family members and people who work with veterans to visit the online PA Veterans Registry to request information related to state benefits, programs and services offered by the DMVA. Registrants can also opt-in to receive informative communications such as program updates. The weekly newsletter contains Veteran-related news items, employment opportunities, events and much more. Visit www.dmva.pa.gov.

VA COMPENSATION COST OF LIVING INCREASE

In October 2018, President Trump authorized a 2.8% cost of living increase for veterans receiving VA benefits. This increase went into effect December 1. Veterans should have seen increased payments starting with December 31, 2018 VA benefits deposit.

NEW VA.GOV WEBSITE

The VA reformatted its VA.gov website to enable veterans to use their MyHealtheVet, DS Logon, or ID.me account to track the status of benefits and claims, refill prescriptions, message their doctors and request a Veterans ID card. This is part of a plan to modernize the way that veterans access their benefits and care. Visit www.va.gov.

NEW VET CENTER, LANCASTER

Since 1979, the Vet Center program has been providing quality readjustment services to veterans and their families. All Vet Center services are free and your benefit will never expire. You do not have to be enrolled for VA Medical care in order to take advantage of your Vet Center benefit.

Family members of eligible veterans also qualify for Vet Center services for military related issues. Available services include support groups and counseling for individuals and groups. Topics include marital and family, post traumatic stress, sexual trauma/harassment, bereavement issues as well as outpatient substance abuse treatment, liaison with community agencies and referrals for homeless veterans.

The new Lancaster Vet Center is located at 1817 Olde Homestead Lane, Lancaster PA 17601. The phone number to reach that office is (717) 283-0735. www.vetcenter.va.gov.

During the State VOD banquet, a crowd of 425 VFW and Auxiliary leaders congratulated teacher Marchia Bartlet for winning the VOD Teacher of the Year Award (District 15/Post 6757) and Rory Decker (District 10/Post 531) for receiving the Patriot's Pen first-place award in the "Why I Honor the Flag" speech contest.

The remaining top five VOD students were (second to fifth): sophomore Katherine T. Lewandowski, District 11/Post 5010; senior Helena N. Volpe, District 8/

Post 3258; sophomore Morgan M. Steiner, District 10/Post 5207; and senior Katrina E. Henne, District 9/Post 3376.

VFW and Auxiliary leaders provided a standing ovation for PA Army National Guard SSG Joshua A. Hedetniemi, a two-tour Iraqi war veteran who received the Department VFW Eagle Award, which is presented to a PA Guardian whose service shows high levels of honor and integrity.

A resident of Oreland in Montgomery

County, SSG Hedetniemi serves as a Human Resource Specialist with the Higher Headquarters Company for the 56th Stryker Brigade Combat Team.

He has served with exceptional dedication in Pennsylvania's 28th Infantry Division for nearly 16 years. He entered military service in 2003 when he enlisted as an infantryman with Co. B, 1st Battalion, 111th Infantry Regiment (IR).

Private Hedetniemi volunteered to deploy to Iraq in June 2004 in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom (III), and deployed with Co. A, 1st Battalion, 111th IR, with Task Force Dragoon. He served as a mounted machine gunner in the 2nd Platoon, and successfully completed over 340 combat missions in the Northern Suni Triangle area.

On June 9, 2005, Specialist Hedetniemi and his convoy were attacked by a suicide vehicle-borne explosive device that detonated and destroyed the lead vehicle in the patrol. Without regard to his own safety, the Specialist dismounted his Humvee and entered the burning vehicle pulling out four platoon members who were trapped inside while ammunition cooked off.

For his extreme bravery, Hedetniemi received the Bronze Star Medal with Valor device.

In August of 2005, Co. A 1-111th IR suffered the greatest number of casualties of any PA Guard unit since World War II. Six squad members died in ambushes between August 6 and 9, rendering the squad and platoon combat ineffective.

The platoon never lost heart or gave up on the mission, but instead reorganized and returned on mission cycle to complete the remainder of the deployment with honor.

He returned home in February of 2006. In 2007, he was promoted to Sergeant and assigned as a Regimental recruiting and retention NCO. The staff sergeant was chosen as the NCO of the quarter for Southeastern PA and was the primary instructor for the Recruit Sustainment Program in Philadelphia.

In light of his demonstrated qualities and abilities, he was selected and promoted to Staff Sergeant in April of 2008. In September, his Regiment was once again sent to Iraq. SSG Hedetniemi again volunteered to deploy and resigned from his non-deployable role as a recruiting NCO to mobilize with his old unit.

The sergeant served as a Platoon Sergeant and on Personal Security Detail, the NCO in charge. During this deployment, his platoon participated in Counter

In addition to his Bronze Star, Hedetniemi's other awards include: Army Commendation Medal for Valor (under fire); Army Commendation Medal with 4 Oak Leaf Clusters; Combat Infantryman Badge. Global War On Terror Expeditionary Medal; Iraq Campaign Medal with 2 Campaign Stars; and Army Good Conduct Medal (5th Award).

When presenting the award, State Commander Thomas Hanzes proudly recognized SSG Hedetniemi as a VFW comrade who serves as the Sr. Vice Commander at North Penn Post 676.

"This is a great honor," said Hedetniemi. "What I did to earn my combat medals and this Eagle Award is the same as what the VFW continues to do in the States: take care of your brothers and sisters in arms. It's nice to know someone back home has our backs once we get home."

Hedetniemi's comments about the VFW caring for veterans and military troops echoed throughout the workshop-driven conference as mission successes were reported.

Three hundred Department, district and post leaders from across the state participated in the conference.

McMurray Post Donates $30,000 to Homeless Vet Shelter

When VFW Post 764 gets involved with a community project, the 400-member McMurray unit goes all out. The latest example in the post's long history of impressive service projects is a $30,000 donation to support the "Patriot's House" homeless veterans shelter.

4. LOYALTY DAY AND MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCE: Section 223 of the National Bylaws and the Manual of Procedure provides that each Post shall make the necessary arrangements for proper observance of Loyalty Day and Memorial Day. Officers should see that suitable grave markers, wreaths and flags of the United States are placed on the graves of deceased veterans.

5. "BUDDY" @ POPPIES DISTRIBUTION: The distribution of VFW "Buddy" @ Poppies will be conducted according to the provisions set forth in Section 711 of the National Bylaws and the Manual of Procedure. Department, District, County Council and Post Commanders should arrange now for the distribution of Buddy Poppies in their respective areas.

In the ongoing effort to provide as much assistance as possible to those serving in the military, we recommend that proceeds or portions from this year's annual poppy distribution be designated for the purpose of providing VFW support to our military. Posts and Departments now have the opportunity to assist qualified military personnel through the VFW Veterans and Military Support Programs.

In keeping with the intent of Sections 219(a)(c) and 704(a)(c) of the Manual of Procedure "Relief Fund," this year's poppy campaign can play a direct role in demonstrating to those who are charged with protecting and defending our way of life that we appreciate and value their sacrifice.

Ronald Pruitt was born in 1955, and was in basic training in Michigan in 1973. After three years in the Navy, he moved home to help care for his recently widowed mother. He died at the age of 41.

"To my surprise, the next thing I knew I was receiving a phone call from Barbara," added MacKenzie. "The funeral home reached out to her and she called me."

"I can't believe they found them in a dumpster, I was shocked," said Dixon. "When my brother was cremated, his ashes went to my older sister. Then my sister died in 2000. My brother-in-law remarried and we didn't hear from him again."

Dixon is still missing additional pieces in this case. She does not know where her older sister's cremains are. There were originally seven siblings, including one that died before Barbara was born. She has also lost touch with Ronald's son, William.

In addition to the cremains, the post presented Dixon with a U.S. flag. "It would have been easy just to give up," added MacKenzie. "But that's not how we do things. We did our job here. We stand ready to assist any military member or their family."

"I can't thank them enough," said Dixon. "It does give a boost to the holidays. I'm just so glad that he's going home. I think he would really like that. Hopefully, he'll be interred in a military cemetery close to where my husband is. It means a lot."

As to the roofer that started the ball rolling? "I'm happy," stated Hanna. "I couldn't believe anyone would throw remains in a dumpster. I'm glad she could have some kind of closure after 15 years. I'm glad he's back where he's supposed to be."

Taking a Few Steps will Boost Post Membership

Wayne D. Perry, State Sr. Vice Commander - wayper@zoominternet.net

Comrades: As we all know, we are losing veterans every day. It is up to all of us—post officers and every member—to get out into the community and recruit. If we sit on our butts, our organization will fade away. It's just that simple.

An easy way to offset your membership losses is to retain the members you already have in your post. Treat your post comrades with respect and invite them to help out at post events. Seek out and embrace new ideas. Create a family environment so spouses and entire families see their VFW post as an important part of their lives.

If we make all members feel like they are appreciated and valued, fewer post members will walk away.

What about those members who have left the post over the past five years. The VFW has their contact information, so why not give them a call. Or, better yet, ask if you can stop by their homes or invite them to the post so you can address the reasons why they left. You might find out all it takes to reinstate them is a pleasant conversation and updating past members about the good things happening at your post.

Have an open house to inform prospective members what the VFW is all about. Let them know the many ways that the VFW makes life better for people of all ages—veterans, our troops, youth, senior citizens and so many others.

Did you know that we can help veterans secure state and federal benefits including veterans emergency assistance, real estate tax exemption, paralyzed veterans pension, blind veterans pension, reduced fees for fishing licenses for former POWs and National Guard and Reserve personnel, and free hunting licenses for certain disabled veterans?

You can request state benefit pamphlets from your state lawmakers.

Today's generation of VFW members will determine the future of our organization. Let's get the job done!

predecessor, and is the first-ever official logo that was designed without the organization's traditional Cross of Malta shield, which remains the official VFW seal. It includes an artistic representation of service stripes which represent length of service on most U.S. military uniforms.

As such, the first and leaner of the two service stripes represents the organization's steadfast entry into its second century of service to America's veterans, service members and their families. The second, broader stripe, represents its first storied century of service, spanning back to 1899.

In addition to the direct metaphor of the stripes, the visual progression leading to the build of the letter "V" represents our sustained and forward movement into achieving the VFW's service mission.

The distinctive gold coloring gives nod to the VFW's stringent membership eligibility requirements and the gold standard of service the VFW provides. The red represents the danger each of its members has faced and the energy with which the VFW operates.

In support of the project, the VFW has created individual custom logos for use by each of its State Headquarters in all 50 states and overseas, and nearly 6,300 individual VFW posts.

"The VFW is such an amazing organization and just as relevant, if not more so, than at any other time in our history. It's time all of America notices us and I feel confident this is another step in accomplishing just that," said Lawrence.

If you need generic VFW logo files, email dsandman@vfwpahq.org. For post specific logos, email rlaw@vfw.org.

Deadlines Coming for Submitting Conv. Resolutions

At VFW State and National Conventions, resolutions are approved to establish goals and policies that govern activities for the following year. Members in good standing may submit resolutions to the Department Convention through their post, county council or district. All proposed By-Law Amendments and Resolutions must be sent to State HQs by May 31, 2019. Make sure to leave adequate time to get your resolution properly submitted.

For more information or guidance on how to submit a proposed By-Law Amendment or Resolution, contact State Adjutant/Quartermaster John Getz at adjutant@vfwpahq.org or (717) 234-7927.

Keep the Great VFW Momentum Moving Forward

Ronald J. Peters, State Jr. Vice Cmdr. - acavrp@hotmail.com

Comrades: The speed of life is hard to keep up with sometimes. It's hard to believe how fast the VFW year is moving along!

As I travel across the state, it's amazing how much is being accomplished to bring more veterans into the VFW. I recently visited a district that could barely get half of its posts to attend district meetings five years ago, but the day I visited that district this year, there were 20 of 21 posts present. This is terrific!

Progress happens because people who value the VFW and recognize its good impact on veterans invest the time needed to rejuvenate their posts and district. I have observed this new wave of energy and dedication across our state, which results in an increase in participation at all levels. This is quite uplifting. I salute those who have stepped up to make this happen.

As I checked membership while writing this article, our Department stood at 97.25% of its objective. We are moving forward, thanks to your hard work.

We have just over three months to reach 100%. Our goal is attainable, but it comes down to our posts putting in a little more extra effort to keep new and reinstated members coming in. Please do not delay installing these members.

I have seen a variety of programs and events used to increase our outreach to find veterans where they live, worship, work, serve, dine and recreate. You can make critical connections with people by telling them how the VFW carries out its mission. If we close the information gap that exists about the VFW, people will be impressed by who we are and what we do.

Have you ever held a Buddy Poppy drive in local shopping areas? Not only will this help you raise funds for your needy members, you will meet veterans who do not know how the VFW benefits them and their communities.

These Buddy Poppy events will create membership growth opportunities and chances to let our "target audience" know what defines the VFW today.

Remember, if we're not out in our communities recruiting, volunteering, supporting our community and holding patriotic events, then we are INVISIBLE!

Please join and support the VFW's "Yes We Can" movement!

Election Reports, VFW Technology and Trustee Reports

John B. Getz, Jr. - State Adjutant/Quartermaster - adjutant@vfwpahq.org

Here we are once again approaching the time when we nominate and elect our new officers for the 2019-2020 year. Please remember that the March meeting is when the first nomination is made, followed by the April meeting when you have the second nomination and election of new officers.

When the new post officers are elected in April, please go to the National VFW website—www.vfw.org—log in, then complete the election report. Do not wait until May or June; do it right after your election even though officers might not be installed yet.

While you are on the website, I encourage post quartermasters to check the many administrative steps that they can complete online. Much time and energy was spent to make fulfilling your responsibilities easier, so take advantage of the technology you have at your fingertips.

Visit the "Training and Support" section and make sure all post officers watch the videos that cover some important operational areas. Better yet, schedule a special meeting to view these resources together including videos on how to recruit new members and how to run a proper post meeting.

Thank you to everyone for doing a great job filling out the Trustees of Audit form. The data on this form is critical to keeping your post on solid financial footing. We are seeing fewer errors and more complete forms. Trustees: be sure you closely review bank records and the form before you sign.

Please always remember that the post quartermaster must be in control of all post and home association funds including writing checks and depositing monies. There should be no exceptions!

Do not hesitate to call or email me if you have questions or concerns.

Thank you for all you do for the largest combat veterans organization—the VFW.

New "Spearhead" Book Spotlights PA VFW Member

New York Times Bestselling author Adam Makos recently visited Harrisburg to meet with World War II tank gunner and VFW Post 2124 life member Clarence Smoyer of Allentown to promote, "Spearhead: An American Tank Gunner, His Enemy, and a Collision of Lives in World War II." A demilitarized Sherman tank owned by collector Frank Buck was driven to the Midtown Scholar Bookstore, providing Smoyer with a chance to get reacquainted with the tank.

The scene was later recreated at Allentown VFW Post 2124.

Department Bids Farewell to PSCs Thomas and Allen

Past State Commander Al Thomas(1998-99): Albert Stanley Thomas, Jr., passed away in November at the age of 84. Al served in the U.S. Army during the Korean War era as a field artillery man with the 101st Airborne and Third Armored Cavalry, and he was awarded the Occupation Medal. He joined the VFW in 1966.

Comrade Al's engaging smile showed his kind heart and his compassion for others.

He was life member of Darby VFW Post 974. He was elected as post commander in 1973-74 and earned "Outstanding Post Commander" honors. Al also held the office of post quartermaster for many years, and was named to the Department of Pennsylvania VFW's "Post Quartermaster Team" in 1990-91.

He served in many higher VFW leadership positions including as Department By-Laws Chairman, when he would frequently say, "It's in the book (Manual of Procedure)," when responding to questions about VFW procedures. In addition to State Commander and Department Parliamentarian, he served as chairman of the State VFW Community Activity Committee, the Political Action Committee and as a member of the State VFW Legislative Committee. Al was an award-winning district commander and district quartermaster.

Nationally, Al attended VFW Legislative Conferences and National Conventions for more than 30 years. His National VFW appointments included serving on the Youth Activities, Americanism, Legislative, Political Action, Hospital, Voice of Democracy and National Security committees. He was a member of Cootie Pup Tent 8 and was Supreme (National) Commander in 1987-88.

Past State Commander William Allen (1992-93): William C. Allen passed away in January at the age of 87. Bill served in the Military Police during the United Nations occupation of Germany from 1951-53 with the 7792 Security Team for the U.S. High Commissioner for Germany.

He joined the VFW in 1955 at Post 231, where he served as both post commander and post quartermaster. He then held those same positions with Norwood Post 7213, and as commander, quartermaster and judge advocate of District 7.

Bill was honored as an "All-State Post Commander" and "All-State Post Quartermaster."

On the Department level, he served as Judge Advocate, Community Activities Chairman, Chief of Staff and member of the Eastern States Conference. He was chosen by National Headquarters to serve on committees for Veterans Service, Finance, Internal Organization and Americanism. Bill was also named a National Aide-de-Camp.

He remained active on the Department's Finance Committee through 2018.

Thank you, Comrades, for your many years of service to your nation and the VFW.

Membership Recruiting MomentRecruiting 101: Get Out, Shake Hands and Talk to Veterans

Regardless of post size, there are proven recruiting practices that will yield success. For example, by participating in local events, VFW recruiters will have opportunities to speak with eligible members, many who don't know enough about the VFW to value the benefits of membership.

State Headquarters recently coordinated VFW participation in numerous events with good success. At the PA Farm Show, recruiters signed up 25 members. During a large outdoor show that attracted thousands of people who hunt and fish, VFW recruiters brought 26 new members into the organization. Many more information packets were handed out with applications.

Recruiters Dave Gyger and Donna Coulter sign up two new members during the PA Farm Show.

VFW recruiters also attended a local RV Show during which six new VFW members were secured.

VFW State Service Officers were also present during these events to help answer questions that veterans and their survivors had about benefits and services provided by the state and federal governments. Their expertise started many conversations that, in addition to addressing benefit issues, showed veterans how the VFW works hard to support them on many fronts.

To further expand the VFW's

Recruiting at an outdoor show in District 29 are Gary Rustin, Commander William Roland, Bob Emerick and State Membership Chairman Henry Manella.

outreach campaign, recruiters will participate in the United States Concealed Carry Association's conference in Pittsburgh (May 17-19, www.usconcealedcarry.com), where veterans will be among the 10,000 attendees.

Recruiters will also set up VFW tables this summer at large air shows in Reading and Latrobe.

VFW recruiting can be highly successful if post members spend time with veterans away from the post home, as shown by the fact that the Department has recruited 1,212 new and 465 reinstated members so far during the 2018-19 year.

At a minimum, all posts can carry out VFW-sponsored events for local military units and offer veterans appreciation events to

PA Dept. will Host VFW National Chaplain Weekend Retreat

Rev. Peter Hook, State Chaplain - peterhook@verizon.net or (267) 229-7722

For 50 years, the members of VFW Post 1865, and the citizens of Kenosha, Wisconsin, honored the VFW National Chaplain and other VFW Chaplains for the service they provide.

This was a special event unmatched anywhere else in the world.

Unfortunately, a few years ago, the tradition stopped when post leadership changed. Past National Chaplain, Ted Bowers, presented the idea of bringing this event to Pennsylvania to his home post (Richard J. Gross VFW Post 8896) in East Berlin. The East Berlin Post decided to take on the responsibility of honoring the VFW National Chaplain and the work of Chaplains.

They held their first event in 2017 when I served as National Chaplain. Last year, we honored Rev. James Gray from Decatur, GA. This year, our VFW National Chaplain is Charlene Cobb from Darien, Wisconsin. The event will take place May 17-19, 2019.

This is a retreat weekend for post, district, and state chaplains and their spouses. We will check in on Friday evening and have dinner together. Here is a preview of our schedule on Saturday, which is Armed Forces Day:

- 9:15 a.m. - Meet at the Gettysburg Museum & Visitors Center
- 9:30 a.m. - See movie/Cyclorama

- 11:00 a.m. - Visit Museum/Gift Shop/ Lunch in cafeteria
- 12:00 p.m. - Board Bus for Tour: A special guided tour of the Gettysburg battlefield by Chaplain John Wega, an expert, not only in Civil War history, but in the role chaplains and faith played in the Civil War
- 3:15 p.m. - Return to Hotels/Bed & Breakfast
- 6:00 p.m. - Banquet at East Berlin VFW Post 8896 with dinner, program and time for informal fellowship.

We have reserved eight rooms at the Altland House (<http://altlandhouse.com/inn-suites/>), 1 Center Square in nearby Abbottstown, PA 17301; (717) 259-9535. These rooms are for guests who will check in on Friday, May 17, 2019, for two nights (departing on Sunday, May 19, 2019).

Those planning on attending the National Chaplain Event, and who desire to stay at the Altland House, should call the Altland House to review room features and confirm the nightly rates. Rooms will be reserved on a first-come, first-serve basis.

There are numerous hotels located close to East Berlin and in Gettysburg.

Chaplains, and anyone else who would like to attend, should put this on the calendar now and contact Chaplain Hook at (267) 229-7722 or email PeterHook@verizon.net to fill out a reservation form.

Blessings as you serve!

Cigarette smoking is the top cause of preventable disease and death. Only 14% of Americans smoke, down from 21% in 2005. Please keep these numbers in mind when planning for the future of your VFW post.

The Department Auxiliary President Says ...

Our Focus is Always on Serving Veterans

By Charlotte Lopes - swoggerlopes51@gmail.com

As I sit here writing this column, our Department Auxiliary stands at 99.19% (as of March 1) in membership. Our goal was to make 100% by March 31, so when you read this I hope that we've accomplished this objective.

Our success in membership and programs show that when we work together as a team, we can accomplish anything.

As I visited the districts this year, I have seen great creativity and dedication for raising funds that support our veterans and their families. Our VA hospital representatives and deputies are doing wonderful work. At one VA medical center, we met a woman who has volunteered more than 16,000 hours. Soon to celebrate her 95th birthday, she still works everyday and she loves helping others. Her mission of service keeps her going strong.

Please remember that March 29 is a day of remembrance for Vietnam War veterans. Make sure that you thank our Vietnam veterans for their service and welcome them back home.

By the time you read this article, we will have completed our annual march on Washington, D.C. During this important rally for veterans support, we reminded lawmakers about the many legislative victories that the VFW and its Auxiliary have made possible, and we promoted our current priorities.

While in D.C., we once again congratulated our Department's first place Voice of Democracy winner and were proud to escort her during the National VOD awards event.

Always remember in your prayers our men and women who served in the military and those serving today. Keep writing letters to our state and federal lawmakers to remind them that they need to provide our veterans and our troops with the highest possible level of support.

Whether you are a Democrat or Republican, you should always support our veterans and push hard for continued funding for the benefits and services that they have earned. Let's also remind them that there are many veterans suffering from medical conditions caused by their service and that there are many veterans who live with undiagnosed conditions.

Our mission is "Getting Justice for Our Veterans" and I "Believe We Can Do It!" Let's keep up the great work!

Get Your Reports In and Sign Up for VFW Action Corps

By Michael Mason, Legislative Committee Chairman - wrangler8796@gmail.com

As we approach the end of the Auxiliary program year, I want to thank everyone for a great year. I also want to remind everyone to ensure that you complete your year-end reports and get them submitted on time. The reporting period is April 1, 2018 through March 31, 2019.

Auxiliary Presidents are to send two copies to their District President by April 6. Please retain one copy for your Auxiliary Records. District Presidents are to send the reports to the program chairman by April 20. Chairpersons should send the information to the Department president by May 1.

VFW Action Corps: We ask that all Auxiliary members join the VFW Action

Corps, which you can sign up for by visiting the VFW web site, www.vfw.org/actioncorps, and follow the prompts.

Getting your members involved with the VFW Action Corps, and showing them how to use the site, will ensure that they receive emails and notifications about critical legislative and executive branch actions that will impact veterans.

Together, we can provide grassroots support for VFW legislative priorities. You will find the 2019 Legislative Priority Goals on the National VFW website.

It's been a true honor for me to serve as Legislative Chairman for the Department of Pennsylvania Auxiliary. "Believe... We Can Do It!" by "Getting Justice for Our Veterans."

Thank you for all that you do!

Spotlighting Our Auxiliary Activity

Clockwise from top: Department Auxiliary leaders salute the flag during the opening ceremonies of the State VFW Mid-Winter Conference in January. Donning construction hats, Past Department President Sandy Brenner, PDP Kathy Jo Reinsmith and President Charlotte Swogger Lopes lead post and district Auxiliary representatives through a "Building on the Auxiliary Foundation" training session during the conference.

Let's Help Develop Patriotism Among Our Youth

Nancy Kreiner, Youth Activities Chairperson - mrsplk2@aol.com

The members of the Department Auxiliary have been very busy achieving the following:

2018-2019 YOUTH ACTIVITIES PROGRAM GOALS:

- Creating, sponsoring and working with youth groups

- Youth groups supporting our veterans national citations
- Random acts of patriotism (R.A.P.)
- Creating a contest for students in grades K-5 - Our contest for students in grades K-5, "Picture My Veteran," was a great success. There were over 1,000 entries.

The winners are as follows: first place K-2, $50, Andrew Kilpela, District 25/Aux 7505; and second place K-2, $25, David Calugar, District 21/Aux 5265.

Grades 3-5 winners - first place Catalina Carrolus, $50, District 21/Aux 8896; and second place Braden Mathews, $25, District 27/Aux 6743.

Awards will be given at the President's Testimonial in New Kensington, PA. GREAT JOB!!!

The VFW Auxiliary continues to help teach our youth the skills they need to become responsible adults through serving our country, communities and our veterans. Youth are not taught patriotism in our schools, in their homes or in any other organization. They need to know from where they receive their freedoms.

Our goal of 100% in reporting in Youth Activities for 2018-2019 will be reached.

We "Believe.... We Can Do It" as we work on "Getting Justice For Our Veterans."

The Department salutes Chalfont Post 3258 Junior Vice Commander John Otte (shown at right) who, while in route to a District 8 meeting with Sr. Vice Commander George Uhl, encountered a multi-vehicle accident. John, a nationally registered EMT and PA certified fire police officer, assessed the occupants.

As John approached the rear vehicle, he found one occupant trapped and a strong odor of gasoline which was leaking at a steady rate. Fearful of a potential explosion and subsequent fire, John required several attempts to bend the door open far enough to remove the passenger.

John administered basic life support emergency medical care to the driver, then turned to a mother and young daughter in another car to assess their medical needs. He and George remained on scene to provide continuous care to the occupants of the vehicles until paramedic and law enforcement units arrived on scene. The first responders and Chalfont Post members commend John and George for their efforts during an emergency situation.

Brentwood Post 1810 and Auxiliary participate in Operation Reach Out, a volunteer effort by the post and community to pack and ship goodie boxes to troops overseas. This year, 2,500 boxes were packed and mailed. Among those participating are Post Commander Dave Buechel and Auxiliary members Michelle, Matthew, Lynsey and Lauren Wiederstein. In previous years, one of the recipients of these packages was Commander Buechel's son, LCMR Richard Buechel.
