“Encourage – Expand - Educate”

Message from the Department Commander – David W. “Spike” Gyger

I am deeply honored to lead our VFW Department during the 2023 – 2024 year. Pennsylvania has some of the best VFW leaders in the Nation and I thank you for your dedication and energy to moving our Membership Program to even greater heights.

Over the past years, we have learned that if we pay more attention to the members whose memberships are about to expire, we can easily retain them. Likewise, if their membership has expired, we can reinstate them. The trick is to be constantly aware of your Post’s annual members expiration status. To help with this, make sure that your post has a monthly membership roster, and work that unpaid list monthly.

Contact the members on our rosters before their memberships lapse. We do a great job in recruiting new members to join our organization, and we need to do a better job of retaining those new members and getting them involved. It is very important that we contact those members. Give them a “buddy check” call.

Also, we need the right mix of ingredients to increase our membership numbers. First, we start with a plan to increase our membership, then we add knowledgeable recruiters to do the job. Secondly, we create recruiting opportunities while adding recruiting incentives. We are encouraging members at large to join/transfer into a local Post. A member at large listing is available for you if requested.

Membership is NOT just the responsibility of the officers of your post, district and/or department. It should be every member’s highest priority. I am asking that everyone recruits at least one new member this year.

This Year’s Membership Program is 101% and the Mandatory All State work sheet is required to be submitted to Department Headquarters no later than APRIL 30, 2024.

Our Department Membership team is comprised of professionally trained recruiters to help you in your post’s recruiting and retention efforts. If you need assistance, reach out to one of them.

Please remember to practice the three key R’s.....RECRUIT, REINSTATE, RETAIN

Respectfully,

Spike

David W. “Spike” Gyger

“Encourage – Expand - Educate”

Message from the Department of Pennsylvania Membership Team

“Please engage and encourage your members, motivate, mentor and educate your new and younger members, and always strive to increase your membership and expand your involvement in your community.”

"Membership", that ten letter word that causes most people to cringe during a Post or District meeting. Yet, it is the lifeblood of our organization.

Here in PA, we have had a trend of a declining membership for far too long. If each of us attempted to renew, reinstate or recruit just one member, we could more than double the size of our organization in one year.

Obtaining new members and reinstating previous members shouldn't be the only objective. We need to encourage participation in meetings and events.

There is nearly a 30-year gap between the Vietnam War and the start of the Global War on Terrorism. The Desert Storm/ Kosovo/ Bosnia and Somalia generation isn't large enough to carry our organization at every level.

We should all work to train and mentor the younger veterans and encourage them as they seek responsibilities and opportunities in our post and districts.

Teamwork, mentorship, and a purpose will give our members a reason to want to participate. It is up to us to become the change that we wish to see. We all must make the effort to recruit and reinstate members, mentor them and make them feel at home in our Posts, Districts and Department.

I wish you all a successful membership and program year!

Tools to Boost Membership

Recruiting Tips

1. Know the VFW – As a recruiter, being aware of our programs and purpose will prepare you to successfully engage prospective members.
2. Network for Prospects – Ask family, friends and coworkers if they know veterans who may be eligible. Follow up on leads quickly.
3. Make Personal Contact – Try to meet prospective members face-to-face whenever possible.
4. Don't Be Afraid to Ask – Many veterans have never been asked to join the VFW. If you speak up and ask them to join, you may be pleasantly surprised at their response.
5. Be Persistent, Not Pestering – If they decline to join at this time, respect their decision.
6. Look for Common Experiences – Ask questions to learn about military experiences, family, and daily life. Describe the benefits of membership in a way that relates to the prospective member.
7. Listen Carefully – The best sales people are active listeners. Listen for excuses and objections, and then be prepared to overcome them with facts.
8. Share Your Story – Consider why you are a part of the VFW and tell others why you are so committed to the organization. Your experiences with the VFW are the greatest recruiting tool available.
9. Be Prepared – You may meet potential members anywhere so be sure to keep an application with you at all times. If you use a smartphone, learn about the VFW app and how it can be used to recruit new members. Stay current as VFW National Membership provides updates and assistance on new processes.
10. Enjoy Yourself – If you are enjoying yourself, prospective members will sense your enthusiasm and be more likely to join.

Successful Membership Booths

The following is a general outline for setting up a successful membership recruiting booth.

Start Early

- This will work best as a joint VFW and Auxiliary operation. Cooperation is key.
- Contact the manager of a shopping mall, trade show, state or county fair, or any place there is a large public gathering. Ask for permission (or pay) for space to set up a membership booth.
- Give advance news releases to your local newspaper and radio stations regarding your membership booth.
- Place recruiting posters and signs in store windows, post signs at the entrance to your city and along major thoroughfares or any place the public will notice them.
- Obtain an adequate supply of recruiting and informational materials. Some material is available from Department and National Headquarters. Other material can be obtained from the VFW Store.

The Operation

- Decorate your booth with recruiting posters. Display informational material on the table. At least one VFW member and one Auxiliary member, wearing VFW caps or ball caps with Post or VFW logo, should be in the booth at all times. Display a sign large enough to let everyone know you are there.
- If local and state laws allow a drawing, get a member or merchant to donate a gift. Prepare tickets with stubs that request name, address and phone number. Hold the drawing for the prize and save the stubs for later contact.
- As eligible veterans visit the booth, inform them of the VFW programs and pass out informational material.
- As eligible veterans visit the booth, have them fill out a form giving information on their military service and whether they are interested in joining the VFW. If they wish to join, SIGN THEM UP. If they don't wish to join at this time, don't be discouraged. Make sure you get their name, address and phone number and contact them at a later date.

The Follow Up

- Within a few days, have your membership team contact the eligible veterans and talk to them about joining the VFW. This is the time to verify their eligibility and collect their dues.
- Be sure your membership teams is prepared to answer questions about the various programs the VFW sponsors.

“Encourage – Expand - Educate”

- When a veteran joins, make them feel welcome. Ask them to take an active part in the Post and to help recruit others.

It is not the responsibility of the Post membership team to do all of the work. Every member should be involved and made to feel a part of the membership program. Post activities attract members. A strong, active Post helps promote membership. Some membership builders are:

- Activities in community service, Americanism and youth programs.
- Capable service officer to assist veterans in the community.
- Dances, dinners and other social functions for VFW members and their guests.
- Publicize all Post events.
- Maintain a clean, well-managed Post home and canteen.
- Hold interesting and informative Post meetings.
- Have active cooperation between your Post and Auxiliary.

A piece of History

What does Gold, Blue, White and Silver Stars represent?

During World War I, an Army officer of the 5th Ohio Infantry, Captain Robert L. Queissner who had two sons serving on the front line, designed and patented the Blue Star Service Banner. This service flag/banner quickly became the unofficial symbol of a mother and/or father who had a child in military service.

Throughout WWI, American women who had family members serving their country wore a Blue star around their left arm. As the war progressed and the number of dead escalated, mothers wanted to express their loss as well as the pride and honor they felt for their country. Those mothers of the fallen began sewing a Gold Star over the blue star and they began calling themselves "Gold Star Mothers."

During World War II, the Department of War issued specifications on the manufacture of the service flag and service lapel pin. The Blue Star Service Banner typically displayed in windows is an 8.5x14" white field with a Blue Star(s) sewn onto a red and white banner. Each Blue Star represents one family member serving in the armed forces. A banner can have up to five stars, signifying those five members of that family are currently in military uniform on active duty.

If the family member symbolized is killed in action or dies while serving in the military, the blue star representing that individual will have superimposed on it a Gold Star of smaller size so that the blue forms a border. The traditional Gold Star Mothers and Families Day is the fourth Sunday in September.

A White Star Family is one who had a close relative that served in the military and lost them to suicide. The purpose of the White Star Family program is to honor those service members and provide proper care and support to the families.

The Silver Star Families are those who's loved one has been wounded, contracted a serious illness or injury in a war zone. On Silver Star Service Banner Day, traditionally May 1, we recommit to caring for those who return to us wounded or ill.

Many Gold, Blue, White and Silver Star Families reside within our community. Their sacrifice has been great and may their courage and patriotism inspire us to greater service for our country. 🇺🇸

As members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, we ask you to remember the sacrifices of these Families as their loved ones gave their "last full measure of devotion" to preserve the ideals of a free America.

May we in grateful remembrance never forget Freedom is Not Free and that much has been sacrificed for our freedoms.

Membership Mission

To recruit, retain and mentor a stable membership base including all generations of veterans.

To cultivate a membership that is well versed in institutional knowledge and actively involved at all levels of the organization and in the local community. To establish Posts with an established vision of service, leadership, and community outreach.

Introduction

Today, the Veterans of Foreign Wars is 124 years old. During those years, we have had WWI, WWII, Korean, Vietnam, and other veterans joining en masse. Today, however, we have lost many of these honorable men and women. As history has proven, the Post-9/11 veterans will join our organization like others have when they are ready, however usually not until their kids grow or their retirements are in place.

We must not stereotype any of our future members regardless of sex, color, or personal beliefs. If a member qualifies, bring them in. The only way to make this success permanent is to retain those members, recover past members, and continue to recruit new veterans into our ranks. There are still many veterans eligible to join and at all ages. However, our focus needs to be on our Post-9/11 veterans, for they will be our future.

You might ask, how do we build our organization? It's simple, leadership by example. If you are a Commander of a Post, District, Department, or the National Commander, then get out there and recruit members yourself and show your team that if you can do it, so can they. A good way to do this is to improve the way we communicate with our members at all levels of the organization. Posts, Districts, Departments, and our National Officers need to use all methods available to convey information for news and training to our membership through newsletters, emails, social media, recruiting booths and outreach teams.

We need to know who our members are and how we can address their needs and concerns. It's time to step it up and recruit Post-9/11 veterans. Each of us needs to do our part and recruit at least one new member. Think about it. If we all recruit one each, we would show substantial growth in membership in just one year.

Membership Goals

1. Build a strong organization through recruiting new members while retaining our current membership, creating a solid baseline for the future.
2. Work together to achieve VFW's goals. The VFW National Headquarters staff is available to assist in coordinating programs, developing membership initiatives, and building awareness among our membership and the entire veteran community.

Membership Objectives

- Achieve 102% in Membership
- For everyone to recruit at least one new member and then mentor that member.
- Increase membership drives and/or events.
- Develop new Posts and/or revitalize existing Posts.
- Increase Life Membership and Legacy Life Membership

Membership Resources

In order to assist our Posts, Districts, and Departments in meeting the goals set out by the Commander-in-Chief in this membership program, the National Headquarters has a wealth of resources at your disposal. Many of those are available free of charge to our members.
