Message from VFW Department of Pennsylvania Commander Jim Brown

Sisters and Brothers,

I am deeply humbled and profoundly honored to serve as YOUR Commander and to represent the dedicated Membership of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Department of Pennsylvania. This honor arrived quickly, and I know it will pass just as quickly — which is why EVERY MOMENT MATTERS!.

When I first joined the VFW, I will admit I thought it was simply a bar. I soon learned how wrong I was. The VFW is a refuge — a place where Veterans can find belonging, purpose, and support. It is a community built on shared sacrifice and strengthened by those who choose to step forward rather than step away.

My own journey has been filled with challenges, setbacks, and humbling lessons. Those experiences shaped me, strengthened me, and deepened my commitment to ensuring that together, we will always strive for the betterment of the VFW as a whole. I am here because Mentors and fellow Members encouraged me to stay, to lead, and to BE PART OF THE SOLUTION — not part of the problem. This passion allowed me to IGNITE a fire.

As a Post and District Commander, I witnessed firsthand what may be achieved when Members UNITE behind a common purpose. The accolades we as a Post and District earned at the State and National levels were never the result of one person's efforts. They were the direct reflection of YOU — the Membership — stepping up, working together, and refusing to settle for anything less than Excellence. My six years representing Pennsylvania as the National Legislative Chair only reinforced that truth. The truth of taking on challenges is best done by Uniting.

The greatest challenges we continue to face are Retaining, Reinstating, and Recruiting Members into our VFW. That is why Growing Our VFW Family is the first major challenge I put forth to all of you. Let me be clear — I have zero doubt that you are up to this challenge!

There are 365 days in a year. Every single one of those days is an opportunity to reach out, reconnect, and grow our Membership. Imagine the impact if every Member, of our approximately 57,000 Pennsylvania Members, brought in just one New or Reinstated Member over the course of the year. The math is simple: we would double the size of OUR VFW PA FAMILY.

Yet too often, we rely on a small group of dedicated individuals to carry the weight. That cannot continue. Membership is our lifeblood. Membership is the responsibility of the Membership Team. YOU ARE ALL THAT MEMBERSHIP TEAM!!!

Every conversation, Every event, Every interaction is a chance to welcome someone home to the VFW — a place where they belong, their service is honored, and where their voice matters.

Pennsylvania has a proud history of leadership and achievement within the VFW. That legacy is not accidental — it is built by Members who show up, speak up, and lift each other up. This year, and every year we must PUSH FORWARD. The expectation: Excellence in all we do.

Whether it is supporting Veterans, strengthening our Posts, engaging our communities, or mentoring the next generation of leaders, YOU are the key to our success.

Together, we will honor our past, strengthen our present, and build a future worthy of the Warriors who came before us.

Be part of the Solution & Positive Evolution, Not part of the Problem!

Message from the Department Membership Chair James Rice

We are a great Department that takes the VFW and its mission seriously at every level. However, to accomplish our continued mission, “WE All” must push forward while simultaneously supporting those in our organization. The goal to bring in new, motivated members is admirable and what we are striving to achieve. However, we must not forget that we need to start by making all members feel welcome.

When we have a potential new member, we should assign somebody to mentor them about the VFW and our mission. A tour of the Post and a brief overview of what is being accomplished within the VFW and your community is enough to ignite a passion to contribute to the mission – and then they too will promote our mission. When we meet veterans in our communities, honesty and authenticity matter. A genuine story about why we serve—and how the VFW changes lives—can open the door to connection. Our mission is powerful because it is real, and because it is rooted in service to veterans and their families.

To honor that mission, we must never allow ourselves to become stagnant or complacent. Growth is not just a goal—it is a responsibility. We will continue to grow, to retain those we serve, and to re-engage those who have served with us before.

Membership is extremely important; it is our future. All our members have a voice, and that voice is much louder when more of us come together to help each other in our community. Whether it is to leverage and advocate in legislation, gather veterans for community service, or garner the monies to give back to veterans in need, we cannot forget that we need future members to lead and continue the mission of the Veterans of Foreign Wars by taking care of all future veterans and their families. We are proud to prove that “Nobody Does More for Veterans” by recruiting and retaining our replacements to continue the mission.

TRIPLE “R”

In my days as an Air Force Combat Engineer in Red Horse, Triple “R” meant “Rapid Runway Repair”. For our VFW Membership Program, It means “Retain, Reinstate, Recruit”.

1. RETAIN: We must find ways to keep our Members involved, NOT just wait 11 months and ask them for their Membership Dues!
2. REINSTATE: Reach out to Expired Members and ask what we may do for THEM! Find out why they left the VFW, and invite them back into the VFW Family.
3. RECRUIT: Many would say Recruiting should come first. Recruiting new Members is the Lifeblood for longevity of the VFW. We actually do a decent job Recruiting, and continue to adapt to different methods of Recruitment. Where we fall short, is Retaining those Members that we spent the time/effort/monies Recruiting.

Quartermasters at every Post have the access to obtain lists of expiring Members and Members that have already expired. Have your Post Quartermaster generate these lists and utilize the lists to RETAIN and REINSTATE Members. If your Posts Quartermaster is unable, have them seek assistance on how to obtain the lists. If the Post Quartermaster is unwilling to do this, please let the Department Membership Chair know and the Department Commander will be informed.

These Expiring and Expired lists are tremendous tools for your toolbox when it comes to increasing your Membership. These individuals were already Members. Contact them and get them reengaged!

A Member At Large listing is available upon request from Department Headquarters. This is a great way to reach out to individuals and get them into your Post(s).
